It has therefore become necessary, in order to give an opportunity to the Committees of doing justice to the several communications, that each Author should prepare beforehand an Abstract of his Memoir, of a length suitable for insertion in the published Transactions of the Association, and the Council request that he will send it, together with the original Memoir, by book-post, at once, addressed thus:—"General Secretaries, British Association, 52, Albemarle-street, London, W. For Section....." If it should be inconvenient to the Author that his Paper should be read on any particular day, he is requested to send information thereof to the Secretaries in a separate note.

No Report, Paper, or Abstract can be inserted in the Report of the Association unless it is in the Assistant-Secretary's hands before the conclusion of the Meeting.

If we turn to Shakespeare, for instance, we find quoted Dame Quickly's description of Falstaff's death, while there are given notices of Shakespeare by Keats, Ben Jonson, Browning, Burne-Jones, and by some anonymous writer who likely enough is the editor. From him we learn that 'Shakespeare went before all men, and stands in the array of human intellect like the sun in the system, single and unapproachable.'"

It contains the utmost lucidity with strict scientific accuracy, and deals with ascertained facts rather than with vague theories."—Greenwich Telegraph.

ROBERTS'S HOLY LAND.

THIRD EDITION of Part I. Now Ready, price 7d.

THE HOLY LAND,

ILLUSTRATED FROM THE ORIGINAL DRAWINGS

By DAVID ROBERTS, R.A.

With Historical Descriptions by the Rev. GEORGE CROLY.

"Roberts is able to hold his own, even on ground where later artists, from Eugène Fromentin to Mr. Holman Hunt, have industriously followed him. Of course the present issue of 'The Holy Land' will not appeal to the connoisseur or wealthy buyer, who is able to give a round sum of six-and-twenty guineas for the original publication, but with humbler purchasers it will probably succeed. We may safely predict for the new issue a considerable popularity."—Academy.

"That large section of the public which found the original edition out of their reach will gladly welcome this most admirable re-issue, by which we are enabled at an almost ludicrously small price to become possessed of the most striking work ever published on a subject of the deepest interest to all Christians."—John Bull.

"This re-issue of Roberts's 'Holy Land,' in monthly parts at sevenpence, will be of great interest and value. It will form a volume of great artistic merit, which will greatly increase our acquaintance with the Holy Land."—Christian World.

"The new issue is a replica of the old, and in every way worthy of the work."—Western Morning News.

"Messrs. Cassell, Petter, Galpin, & Co. are publishing in monthly parts Roberts's beautiful and interesting work of 'The Holy Land.' The plates are printed on tinted paper, and are executed with much delicacy and taste."—Reading Mercury.
